LEAGUE TEAMS ARE PUTTING IN PLENTY OF HARD PRACTICE

In preparation for the games to-night and Saturday night all six of the league teams have been putting in strenuous practices.

The High School appeared to very good advantage yesterday afternoon in skirmishes with the Forest Service who surprised their former exhibitors both in game work and goal throwing.

The University first and second teams have been working out together and have shown that the University has ten men of Varsity caliber. The Business College and Company G practiced last night and Monday night, showing up well.

The league schedule for tonight is as follows:

University vs. Company G.
Forest Service vs. Albuquerque Business College.

For Saturday night:

Business College vs. Indian School, Company G. vs. High School.

The standing column of the league was somewhat altered by the announcement of the league officials that Company G had forfeited its game to the Forest Service last week. This ties the foresters and university for first place, Company G and the Business College tying with each other for hot place. The High School and Indian School have not yet played.

Made Him Nervous.

(From Judge.)
A crowd of dirty-faced archeans were playing dangerously near the edge of a Providence pier. Suddenly an old man, who had been a fidgit onlooker from the cabin of his boat, emerged from his favorite post and proceeded to soundly thrash one of the lads in question.

Some passersby, surprised by his actions, stopped to question the old man thereon.

"Well, I'll tell you," said the old fellow as he reluctantly raised his hand on the lad's collar. "Taint as I care a hang whether they fall in or whether they don't, but it's the danged uncertainty about it that I can't stand."

COMMERCE CLUBS ASKED TO PRESS SAN JUAN ROAD

Cato Sells Says Action by Civic Bodies Will Increase Chance of Getting Money Needed for Highway.

Col. D. K. B. Sellers is in receipt of a letter from Commissioner of Indian Affairs Cato Sells, stating that if the commercial clubs and residents of New Mexico interested in the improvement of 25 miles or more of road on the Navajo reservation between Shiprock and Glorieta, N. M., because of the benefits to be derived by tourists and white citizens of the state, shall see fit to urge legislation for this project, they will greatly increase the probability of obtaining an appropriation.

Congressman E. T. Taylor of Colorado has introduced a bill (H. R. 24) providing for an appropriation of $15,000 for the first year's work.

According to estimates prepared by an engineer of the Indian irrigation service it will require between $50,000 and $55,000 to construct a permanent road over the course mentioned. These figures far exceed superficial estimates heretofore made, which were not based on surveys but rather on observations taken while driving over the country, which, though very smooth apparently, is in reality more or less broken by swales, to cross which will necessitate the raising of the roadway for drainage according to the letter.

HORNADAY BOOKS ARE DONATED TO LOCAL LIBRARIES BY AUTHOR

Wishing to imbue the younger generation with sound ideals of the value of wild life, the Albuquerque Game Protective association suggested to Dr. W. T. Hornaday of New York that he present some of his books to local libraries. Dr. Hornaday immediately responded with three sets of his two best known books, one set each for the Albuquerque public library, the library of the high school, and the library of the University of New Mexico. The association has turned the books over to Miss Anna, city librarian, Superintendent J. W. Gilmer, and President David P. Boyd, and they are now available to the students and the public.

The first of Dr. Hornaday's books, "Our Vanishing Wild Life" is probably the most effective argument for wild life protection ever written. "Conservation of Wild Life in Theory and Practice" is an equally good and up-to-date resume of the same protective movement in America. Both volumes beautifully illustrated and furnish extremely interesting reading for any sportsman, student, or for that matter any person interested in game, fish or outdoor recreation. Officers of the local association are in hopes that these library books will be widely read, in the belief that the reader must inevitably become convinced of the necessity for immediate action to save the remnant of American game.

Readers of the Hornaday books who wish to own these volumes themselves are reminded that they can still be obtained at cost at the local book stores. This is by virtue of special arrangements made recently with Dr. Hornaday and the local book stores of the Game Protective association, made when the former furnished the costs of the two trains who carried the signs of the city and were to be seen parading around looking into drug stores and other points of interest.

Strong's were heard to express their pleasure at being allowed to stop off in Albuquerque.

Train No. 2, the "Fargo" fast mail express, also was held up here, and was being sent from here to Gallup at 11:20 a. m.

The De Luxe arrived and departed on time this morning, being detained via Belen and Deming over the Southern Pacific to Phoenix, but shortly after its departure it was learned that all of the Santa Fe trains which had been brought back from Gallup and detained via Deming were being released by the Southern Pacific at Tucson, on account of a serious washout on their own line to Tucson.

In view of the washouts on both the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe, the matter of transportation of passengers and mail is becoming a serious matter.

No trains have arrived from Los Angeles since Tuesday morning, two trains being made up at Barstow and the other Wednesday morning since when there has been no trains from west of Gallup.

FRANK SPITZ GIVES CITY GOOD PUBLICITY

In an article written by Frank Spitz, a newspaper boy, for the Frederic J. Hockin syndicate, this city, as a health restorer and as a place where the great white plague is most easily conquered, has received a bigger boost than could be got out of any amount of free advertising in newspapers throughout the country.

The Hockin syndicate furnishes news to magazines and the larger newspapers of the country, and Mr. Spitz's article, which centers about Albuquerque, gives a graphic description of the tubercular colony here and in other towns in New Mexico, and as to the chances of recovery of those who get here in time and obey the doctor's orders.

Spitz is a graduate of the University of New Mexico.
